

Spiritual Gifts Assessment

Memorial Road Church of Christ

Spiritual gifts are special abilities given to believers by God to bring glory to His name, empower us to serve the body of Christ, and grow His kingdom. The following assessment is designed to help you identify your gifts, although it is not considered absolute. God also created each one of us with passions and abilities, and you will have an opportunity to indicate those as well. Ultimately, the best way to know how God has gifted you is through prayerful service, followed by evaluation to determine areas in which you are most effective.

You can complete the assessment in paper form, or you may complete the spiritual gifts assessment section online if you prefer, and it will tabulate the results for you. (Go to www.mrcc.org. Select 'Ministries' from the main menu, then click on the 'Support Ministries' square. From the navigation menu on that page, choose 'Involvement', and click on 'Spiritual Gifts Assessment.'). After completing this assessment, please enter the results in your online profile (see Step 5, page 12). Our involvement team and ministry leaders will use this information to fill ministry positions and help ensure that you find a place in the ongoing ministries of this church.

If you have questions along the way or you would like to visit about how you can use your gifts at Memorial Road, please don't hesitate to contact me.

STEP 2: Grade your test

Each row in the scoring grid below represents a set of five questions (listed in the left-hand column). For each set of questions, go back to your test and add the numerical values of your responses for those five questions to arrive at a total. Then indicate on the scoring grid what your total is for each set of questions. For example, in the category of Administration, if you answered questions 1, 14, 27, 40, & 53 with responses of “3,” “2,” “3,” “4,” & “4,” add 3+2+3+4+4 to arrive at a total of 16. Then place an “x” in the column marked “16” in the Administration row of the scoring grid.

Questions	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	Gift

3, 16, 29, 42, 55																						Exhortation
4, 17, 30, 43, 56																						Faith
5, 18, 31, 44, 57																						Giving
6, 19, 32, 45, 58																						Knowledge
7, 20, 33, 46, 59																						Leadership
8, 21, 34, 47, 60																						Mercy
9, 22, 35, 48, 61																						Perception/ Proclamation
10, 23, 36, 49, 62																						Serving
11, 24, 37, 50, 63																						Shepherding
12, 25, 38, 51, 64																						Teaching
13, 26, 39, 52, 65																						Wisdom

Go to the next page to list your top gifts.

Now, list your three highest scores:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Some notes about your results:

- The higher the score, the stronger the corresponding gift.
- Note how your highest-scoring gifts have the potential to complement and support one another.
- Your perceptions will be validated by others and confirmed over time through prayer and practice. Listen for that affirmation as others confirm your gifts through genuine expressions of approval and gratitude for a job well done!
- God also gave us abilities and passions, so don't feel like you can't serve in an area that is not specifically your spiritual gift. Sometimes we just need to try something we think we would enjoy doing and see if it's a good fit.
- By the same token, not having a certain gift does not mean that we have no responsibilities in that area. For example, God expects all Christians to give, to serve, to show mercy, etc. Some are just gifted in an extraordinary capacity in those areas.

Please remember that this is not a scientific instrument. This inventory is designed to help you begin your journey toward discovering your spiritual gifts. For further study on spiritual gifts, see the following resources, which were consulted to compile this spiritual gifts assessment:

STEP 3: Examine the spiritual gifts

Before you look through the list of gifts that follow, it may be helpful to read through the three main passages in the Bible that teach about spiritual gifts in the church: Romans 12:6-8; I Corinthians 12:8-10, 28-30; and Ephesians 4:11. Other scriptures throughout the Bible reference specific areas of giftedness.

Compiling a definitive list is difficult, since so many areas of talent and ability are mentioned in God's Word. There are many opinions in the matter of defining spiritual gifts. The following list does not aim to settle those debates but seeks merely to represent the areas of giftedness most commonly found and likely to be used at Memorial Road. Each entry contains multiple scriptural references that pertain to that gift, as well as examples of people in the Bible who exemplify the gift.

When we as Christians use these gifts in the way that God intends, the church is united, edified, and equipped to grow both spiritually and numerically.

The Gifts:

Administration – the gift that enables a believer to visualize the steps involved in reaching a goal and organize people and resources to most effectively accomplish it. See I Corinthians 12:28, Luke 14:28-30, Acts 6:1-7, Titus 1:5 (Titus), Genesis 37-50 (Joseph), Exodus 18:13-27 (Jethro), Nehemiah 8 (Nehemiah).

Faith – the gift that gives a believer the eyes to see the Spirit at work and the ability to trust God and His will with extraordinary confidence, even in the face of apparently insurmountable odds, thereby bringing reassurance and hope to the body of Christ. See I Corinthians 12:9, Matthew 17:20, Mark 5:25-34, Mark 11:22-24, Acts 11:22-24 (Barnabas), Acts 27:21-25 (Paul), Romans 4:18-21 (Abraham), Hebrews 11.

Perception/Proclamation – the gift of clearly perceiving right and wrong that moves a believer to intercede in prayer, to find meaning in trouble, and to boldly proclaim God’s will to exhort, correct, or comfort. See Romans 12:6, I Corinthians 12:10, I Corinthians 12:28, Ephesians 4:11, I Corinthians 14:3, Luke 3:2-20 (John the Baptist), Romans-Philemon (Paul).
